

USED AUTOMOBILE INTAKE AND DISCLOSURE FORM

The Alaska Attorney General's Office has created this form to assist auto dealers to comply with Alaska's law regarding used car sale disclosures, found in the Alaska Statutes at 45.25.465. Under this law, a motor vehicle dealer is required to obtain certain information from sellers of used cars about the accident and repair history of the vehicle. This information will be retained with the vehicle and reported to a potential purchaser of the vehicle. If you have any questions about this form, speak with the dealer or contact the Alaska Attorney General's Office at 907-269-5200.
